

National Board for Certification of School Nurses

Are you looking to do something different?

March 19 is Certified Nurses Day. Have you thought about becoming a nationally certified school nurse (NCSN)? The application process for the summer test window is open. The summer test window is July 10-July 29, 2017. Applications must be completed by June 10, 2017. We encourage all school nurses to become nationally certified. Verify your competence.

Certification is the formal process by which a certifying agency validates a nurse's knowledge, skills, and abilities to perform in a specialty area of nursing practice.

You can get more information about eligibility and the examination at <http://www.nbcsn.org/examination>.

You can apply to take the exam during the summer test window at <https://portal02.cyzap.net/dzapps/dbzap.bin/apps/assess/webmembers/login?webid=NCSN>.
